No Spam, no virus, no pop-ups, no spyware, no virus. You can find the full official review in our website www.apowersnap.com/review Nero Digital Desktop (CD/DVD/Drive/Blu-ray) (My review)Ease of use and terrific handling of the downloaded content Nero 4 is a big step up in popularity and ease of use compared to the previous 3 versions of Nero. It is a more powerful and advanced product. It now includes several large media file types and it is easier to implement both reading and burning programs and data directly to a disc. Nero 4 is a great product and you will not regret having bought it. You will have the ability to burn DVDs and CDs, Blu-ray discs and create video CDs. With Nero 4 you can also read CDs, DVDs and Blu-ray discs, download files from the Internet and even burn images from digital cameras. The first thing that you notice is the very large jump in the user interface of Nero 4 in contrast to the previous 3 versions. The interface is now much cleaner and it is easier to navigate. The list of possible items is more similar to the Windows explorer and you can use the standard files browser to browse any directory on the disk. In addition to the improved navigation, Nero 4 also features a much improved and expanded burning feature which is a major part of the software. You have the ability to read and burn several image formats to a disc. There are options to read images in your choice of sizes, to convert images to X bit files and even to burn and play video with Nero 4. There are also improvements that enhance the burning and browsing features. You can automatically burn files to multi-session discs and you can even burn multi-session discs directly to other data discs. The file set, picture and video slideshows and the video will be set to the same speed for different optical discs. For example, a video for a blue-ray disc could be set to play at the same speed as a video for an HD DVD disc.
