'GAPÃ" is a 1988 Tagalog novel written by award-winning Filipino author Lualhati Bautista. The full title is GAPÃ" at isang putting Pilipino, It tells the story of three generations of a Filipino family. The novel deals with sharp social and political themes, touching on issues that, in my opinion, are very important and relevant: the need for love for parents, children, each other; the attitude towards the elderly and the old. As in most of Bautista's novels, the story is centered on a family, but the story itself is not set in a traditional family, but in a small Filipino village.
